

Let's Create Art 2023 Activity Registration

We are delighted that you are taking part in Let's Create Art 2023. Organisations of any size, and individuals anywhere in the UK, are welcome to register their participatory art activity and take part in Let's Create Art.

Registered Let's Create Art 2023 activities will be:

- Participatory activity, predominantly focused on visual arts
- Taking place between 17 November 2023- 29 February 2024
- Taking place in the United Kingdom or online.
- Supporting the next generation of artists, e.g. through activities with children and young people.

Bursaries and other support

Thanks to support from The Arts Society for LCA 2023 bursaries, funds available will be allocated to selected eligible activities, using the information provided in the registration form.

Round 2: Activities must be registered by 11 December to be eligible for a bursary. Selected recipients will be informed by 15 December.

All registered LCA activities will have access to resources for marketing, planning and evaluating their activities.

Engage does not take any responsibility for registered activities, by registering you are confirming that you have the policies and procedures in place to safeguard the individuals involved in your activity.

Let's Create Art 2023 Bursaries

Thanks to support from The Arts Society, the Let's Create Art 2023 Bursary fund will support targeted campaign activity in England, Scotland and Wales.

Eligible bursary activities will:

- Take place in England, Scotland or Wales
- Engage participants who experience barriers to creative and cultural opportunities/careers OR support artist(s) who experience barriers to career progression due to disability, neurodivergence, race, ethnicity, geography, socio-economic background, or other lived experience.

Organisations and practitioners across the UK are invited to contribute to this fund by 'paying it forward'. Want to make a donation to the Bursary fund? Pay it forward

Round 2:

Up to £250 will be allocated to selected recipients. We aim to inform successful bursary recipients by 15 December 2023 using information provided in the Let's Create Art Activity Registration to assess eligibility. Of those eligible, the selected recipients will be able to clearly demonstrate how their activity will 'support the next generation of artists'. For example, a bursary might support:

- An artist to design and deliver a workshop for young people that shares their own career and creative practices
- An artist to create a resource, video, or blog which shares their career experiences/ practice.
- An organisation to create a 'be an artist for a day' experience for local children
- An organisation to create a CPD offer for teachers on creative careers

Please note that bursary recipients will be expected to document their activity and produce a written report.

15. Please indicate if your Registered Activity is eligible for a bursary:

- Eligible and to be put forward for a bursary.
- Eligible, but a bursary is not required.
- Not eligible.

16.

- I confirm that the details supplied in this registration are accurate to the best of my knowledge, and if awarded a bursary, will need to supply evidence that the activity has taken place as described through submission of a case study, and photography/film documentation, and other evaluative materials.
